17.9 The Supplier shall not process and/or transfer, or otherwise directly or indirectly disclose, any Protected Data in or to countries outside the [United Kingdom] or to any International Organisation without the prior written consent of the Customer (which may be refused or granted subject to such conditions as the Customer deems necessary).

17.10 The Supplier shall maintain complete, accurate and up to date written records of all categories of processing activities carried out on behalf of the Customer. Such records shall include all information necessary to demonstrate its and the Customer's compliance with this clause 17, the information referred to in Articles 30(1) and 30(2) of the GDPR and such other information as the Customer may reasonably require from time to time. The Supplier shall provide (or procure) access to all relevant premises, systems, personnel and records during normal business hours for the purposes of each such audit or inspection upon reasonable prior notice (not being more than [two] Business Days) and provide and procure all further reasonable co-operation, access and assistance in relation to any such audit or inspection.

17.12.2 provide all information as the Customer requires to report the circumstances referred to in clause 17.12.1 to a Supervisory Authority and to notify affected Data Subjects under Data Protection Laws.

17.13 The Supplier shall (and shall ensure that each of the Sub-Processors and Supplier Personnel shall) immediately, at the Customer's written request, either securely delete or securely return all the Protected Data to the Customer in such form as the Customer reasonably requests after the earlier of:

17.13.1 the end of the provision of the relevant Services related to processing of such Protected Data; or

17.13.2 once processing by the Supplier of any Protected Data is no longer required for the purpose of the Supplier's performance of its relevant obligations under this Contract, and securely delete existing copies (except to the extent that storage of any such data is required by applicable law and, if so, the Supplier shall inform the Customer of any such requirement).
